Comments

“ Glenn and Bobby were the best neighbors one could ask for. When my dog broke a leg in a fall they came and sat up most of the night with me until we could reach a veterinarian.

They were a great team together. Glen was a caring businessman and Bobby ran the office. Their home was charming and they always made me feel welcome. They adored their only child, Glenna, and her three children. They graciously forgave me when I ran over their elderly, blind dog, Prudence! Glen was lost after the death of Bobby. I appreciate the friends who helped him in his remaining years.

I will never forget him and the many laughs we shared with Bobby.

My condolences to Glenna, her children and Glen's friends.
