“ Dear Mr. and Mrs. Conard.
I did not know your son. But he was a Conard. You see I married into the Conard family up North West Missouri. Many years ago there was 2 Conard boys that split up. I'm related to the north ones. You are related to the south ones. So anytime I see a Conard I tell them about me. Married into the family. My husband was a police officer in Kansas City Missouri. He too died. Back in 1986. On a float trip in the Eleven Point River. I now have a son that lives in Lee's Summit Missouri. He is an Officer also. School Resource Officer for Lee's Summit West. I'm also the proud g-mom of 3. 2 boys and a girl. I was with child when Don passed away and now I have a daughter. Conard.

My heart goes out to you and his family. It is not easy. May I send you all the love and support to you. Conard people were and are the strongest people on earth. Your son will shine in heaven.

God Bless
Robin Conard

“ Don't have many memories as we have gotten older. But I will always remember when we were all spending time at granny's, at the lake and civil war re-enactments when we were young.

“ I was just outside before Carrie called to tell me the news, looking at the Blackberry blossoms and thinking that I would have a lot of Blackberry jelly for you this year. I know you will be missed. You were such a wonderful man and father. It has been a blessing to know you. I will see you again some day.
