“ One time when we were all outside playing, Joanna dared her to ride Daniels bike and she did! It is an antique. The kids all laughed! Then we came in the house and gave Andrea a make over. We straightened her hair for the very first time and the girls were so excited! She looked so different with straight hair, but still so much like Joanna. 😊

“ I remember when I lived with my mother, every morning she'd wake me up for school by gently tickling my foot. Sometimes when I think about it, I can still feel her long finger nails trailing across the bottom of my foot. I miss her so much.

Andrea was always a very blunt and out spoken person. That was one of the things I loved the most about her but it was also wat I disliked about her also. We was alike in so many ways. I love her and miss her very much. I am so sorry for all the things I have said and done to her in the past. And now it's to late to say I'm sorry. I wish I could see her again so I could say all the things I never got a chance to say
