“ I remember Tony's being on the Pierce City School Board, but did not know he was president of the Board nor did I know he had been an alderman in Pierce City. What a nice picture of Tony! May our Lord and memories comfort Tony's family during this time.

“ Losing Anthony is a great loss. He was the kindest, gentlest and such an honest man. He followed and spread God's teachings and love with everybody. His kindness caused respect and love from all. Larry and I are so sorry we missed fishing with him but we will take his invitation to heaven and fish for the big ones. We really love him. Larry, Linda, Shawn, Mark & Malinda Kerr
