“ It broke my heart to lose you, but you're at peace now. I'm so thankful that just a few days before you passed we laughed about how we met when you crashed my blind date with your friend. You said you fell in love that night, and that you would love me forever. We didn't know how that first night would set the course for the next 36 years. I will always remember us. Rest in peace at last. Carol

“ I will miss you Brent. You were more like a brother to me than a cousin. I love the times spent hiking down at Ponce when we were much younger. I remember when you first introduced Carol to the family. You had you share of trials and pain - it's all over now. You are whole and healed my brother. Love you forever. Loretto (Duff) Ray
