“ Dear Palmer family, When we first moved into our neighborhood 24 years ago, we never knew what wonderful neighbors God would give us in Dick and Bobby. I was a stay at home Mom across the street and they were always around. I LOVED getting to sit on their porch and visit with them. I had so many wonderful conversations about God and family, while they watched their grandchildren play in their front yard. They always had time to talk. When they had to move, I was sad for so long. I knew they were always there and would do anything for us.

Now we have the privilege of their son and wife, Raymond and Trisha, living across the street from us. What a wonderful family, all of you.

*Your parents blessed our lives.
