“ While my father , Vaden Haddock, was in his final days of life so was your dad, both in the hospital, struggling with their ills. I visited with Vernon and your Mother, and she with us and my Mother. While setting in the funeral for your Mother all of these memories came flooding back. She, your mother was the first non medical person to offer her condolence after my Dad had passed early on that Sunday morning 25 years ago this spring. We all lost so much when our parents past, but also gained so much more by there example they set for us. God bless you all, Lowell Haddock

What a "great lady"! I was so privlaged to know her over the years. She had such a sweet calming spirit and endless smile. Rest in Peace, Corrine

“ David, Margaret and Aubrey and to those blessed children I didn't go to school with, I'm so sorry to hear of your mother's passing, but what a good life lived and what a fabulous legacy lives on in her children! Having never met her I know without doubt she lived a life of influence because I knew you. May God give you peace and healing as you walk through the months ahead. My prayers are with you.
