“ Clarence was a great entertainer!! He could really play that guitar. Me and my husband used to go to his place outside Pierce City. It was always a lot of fun had by all. I went to grade school with Clarence in Verona. My prayers go out to his family. He will be playing his guitar in heaven now!!!

“ I am sad to learn of Clarence's passing. My prayers go out to his family. He was a funny guy and a great entertainer. Myself and some of my family and friends used to go to his place outside of Pierce City to listen to his music. I went to school with him in Verona. I also knew William his younger brother. Clarence will be playing that guitar in heaven now. Kay (Lawson) Beck

Clarence was a close friend of the family. My first Cousin, Audrey Lee and Gerald Patton were much closer than I, but I remember well the fish fries and dances. Clarence kept traditional country music alive. A tornado leveled Pierce City, but Clarence's place was still standing. I think that shows that God loved him too. This has been a rough spring, losing Gerald, Dennis, and now Clarence. But you can be sure, there is country music in Heaven. So Long Clarence, We'll be seeing you.
