“ It has been nearly 4 years since we lost you grandma. I miss you more and more every day. Still wish I had figured out what came first the chicken or the egg. I know your in heaven down lookin on me. I promise to come and see you really soon as you never met my second daughter. I love you and grandpa a bunch! I will see you real soon. Ps. Please send crispie rolls. We miss them amongst other things. Love always in the lord, Your favorite grandson.

“ Florence was the much loved pen friend of Mrs Ethel Grace (Gay) Foulis (nee Nicholls) of Willowie, Wilmington & Booleroo Centre in South Australia. Florence and Mum started writing to each other as teenage girls and this continued to write to each other for most of their lives. Yes, family stories were told and photos were shared. A highlight for both was Florence's visit to Australia. She finally met her pen friend's husband, Desmond (Des), and found out what the family farm really looked like! There are lovely photos of them all in Gay's flower garden at Wilmington that celebrate the visit.

Gay died the day after Florence ie December 22 2011. No doubt they are continuing their life long conversation in Heaven!

Lovingly remembered by Rilda Sharp (nee Foulis) of Port Pirie, South Australia & her brothers Russell, Clyde & Bentley.

“ I always loved visiting Auntie Florence, it reminded me of Grandma's, because they were always baking something, (cinnamon rolls, bread, cookies),then sharing it with her friends or taking orders, taking walks with her and just visiting. She was so full of life and love for the Lord, she shined with his Love!! Enjoy your reunion in heaven with all of your other loved ones!!!

“ I will always remember autie Florences laugh.I still have to laugh when I think of the time Florence and my Mom came to bake at my house when I was not home. I came home to find no cover on the hot tub when I asked why it was off they told me they were cold and it looked relaxing when i asked where there suits were they just laughed (enough said)

“ Auntie Florence was always very active and very caring. She would go for walks, work in the garden, play games, bake, always a busy lady, but always had time to sit and visit too. She shined with the Love of the Lord. She was a true servant of the Lord!! I will miss her smiling face and her wonderful hugs!!! Love always, your niece Pauline
