I really wish I got to see you before you left this world but I wasn't home when you and James stopped by. I wish I could rewind the clock. I miss you my friend. Watch over my family and know that I'll always honor your memory!*

“ Oh Frani,
I don't know where to begin! I know over the last 10 or so years we have grown apart, however I'll never forget how kind hearted you were to all. I messaged your mom and told her sorry for the way I treated you growing up, and that I'm truly sorry for not asking forgiveness of you. She told me to pay it forward, so that's exactly what I'm going to do! From the day you met the King I vowed never to say hurtful things to any one!
Love you Frani-

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. My heart aches for you. Though it's hard to accept Frani's passing and the pain seems unbearable, please know you are not alone, for Psalms 34:18 promises, "God is near to those broken at heart; and those crushed in spirit he saves." Pray to Him for strength. Weep to Him when there are no words. May the love of family and friends help you through this most difficult time. In the days to come, your smile will return as you remember the wonderful times you shared with Frani. Please draw comfort from God's promise, that one day you will see your beloved Frani again, for Isaiah 26:19 guarantees, "Your Dead Will Live. Awake and shout joyfully, You Residents In The Dust!..." With my deepest sympathy.

“ Our hearts go out to our Dear friends Pat & Bobbie at this time. To loose a child at any age is beyond description. May you both know that George & I will be keeping the entire family in Heavy prayer for quite awhile.

We know from experience it takes a long time to feel really normal again. We love you & know you are in the Palm of God's hands at this time.

“ Alex and Ivan, we went to church with your grandparents in Puyallup. When Alex was a baby, your mother would come to church and we got to play with Alex in the preschool class. Boys, please remember that God loves you very much and has a plan for each of you. You are loved by so many people and there are people all over the country praying for your family.

“ Frani's family were my neighbors when she was born, so I have known her all her life. I remember when she was a child she always came to play with my granddaughter when she was visiting us. Frani was such a sweet, funny little girl and i have so many fond memories of those times. I did not have the opportunity to see Frani very often when she got older except for a few occasions and on those times it was like I had always remembered her. Frani, rest in peace.

“ Frances has always been someone special to me. We have helped each other out a lot in our lives. We've cried, laughed, drove our parents crazy and even had a fight or two, but through it all I still loved her just the same. She taught me how to stand up for myself and not to take myself too seriously. I know she's been sending me good vibes and songs since last weekend. I hope she's having the best time, where ever she is. She will be missed dearly ! I love you allie and mom, I am here for anything ! Rain or shine, day or night. Our song " that's what friends are for ", I'll never forget it ! Can't wait to see you James, I look forward to hanging out with the boys this summer ! Xoxoxo

“ PJ and I worked together at the City of Tacoma and sometimes Frani would come in to see her mom. Frani had the most amazing head of thick dark curly hair and I always asked her if someone curled it for her. She would get embarrassed and giggle and say "Noooooo!"

She was so beautiful and I told her so she would know what saw. I love you PJ, Bobby, Allie, and Shirley. May God's angels keep a special watch over Frani and the rest of your babies.

“ This is my baby girl! She had talent overflowing! The voice of an angel! Artistic eye with a bit of Van Gogh flare! She was loud like her Momma but she was all her own person from day one! God blessed me almost 30 years ago! Love you always baby girl!!
