Franklin "John" was a gardener, caregiver, inventor, and wrote children's books, many poems and country songs that were copyrighted and recorded. Franklin managed and started many successful businesses. He had a Midas touch. He was a restaurant owner, built beautiful homes and worked hard his entire life. He did not know a stranger and all of those that came in contact with him felt immediately loved by Frank. Most of all, he loved his Lord, his soulmate-Judy and family and cared deeply for all those he shared himself with. He will be sorely missed by those that loved him and called him “friend”.

‘From your fine country roots to your fatherly boots, HANES headbands remembered- a garden well-tended, strength of a lion while his wife was dying, love and compassion being his entire life’s passion. –J.S.’

“ I am so sorry for your dad's passing. Frank is one of my favorite people and he will be so missed by me and all of his friends at GSB! I will miss his big smile and money making ideas (that almost always worked out!) but I know he is taking orders from his Judy now that they are together again.
