“ Picking a particular memory from so many is impossible. My first memory of you is when I was about 3 and walking across the porch with my curl on the top of my head. Uncle Lawrence was holding you and before I knew what was happening you had reached down and had a good hold on a handful of hair. I remember singing with the great garage band that you, Ken and Eddie were so devoted to. I remember as the years went on you became my confidant. Then we both married and you became mine and Jo's competition at Spades almost weekly being partnered with Gerald. I am so sorry you had to be so sick and I am sorry you are gone. I love you. Hilda
