“Geoff was a sweet man that would shoot you straight no matter what. He loved music and deep down he had such a kind heart. I will never forget the chats we had or his kindness in “keeping an eye” on a couple troubled boys that ended up in the jail. Even if he was not directly watching them, his heart was in that place. He did not boast of himself and would not drag on about things. But when he spoke it was to the point and you could tell it was something meaningful to him, in his own quiet way. I will miss his gruff (but sincere) laugh and the chance to have another lunch with him and my kiddos. They sure thought he was neat. Praying his soul is at rest and that his family is comforted.
