“ Jerry was very smart man / father figure / father in law to me. I miss talking to him about my troubles or just listening to his stories over the years that would cheer me up for sure. I do know that he loved his daughter Katie very much and he only wanted to see her happy. Miss you pops very much

“ I have very fond memories of the Morgan family coming to Kansas and staying at our house. We all loved those visits, and Jerry was so very kind to the younger children. He was a special young man!!!
