“ Don, I had no idea you had lost your father. I remember him and your mother welcoming me as if I belonged way back in the 1960's when we were dating, albeit long distance at the time. Your pastor bringing me to your home on Sunday afternoons, and taking me back to Springfield after evening services. Your parents and you did have an impact on me, and I thank God that I had the opportunity to know you all, even if we lost touch after our marriages.

“ I could always count on Uncle Howard for the biggest bear hug whenever I saw him. I loved riding in the wagon and going on the trail rides with him. Uncle Howard was a kind and gentle soul, and I know when I get to heaven, I will run and find him for another hug! I loved him very much and appreciated Don sharing him with us.

“ Although Howard's family doesn't have a clue who I am... I just wanted to say that I really admired Howard. When I was an eighteen/nineteen year old kid. in 1962/63, I went to work at Sarcoxie in the shoe factory (was it called Juvenile or something like that?)... Howard took me under his wing and helped me get through the hot, fast-paced world of "piece-work" labor. I've never forgotten what a nice person he was. I eventually went to college, taught school for many years. and then became a school principal in the Kansas City area. When I saw Howard's obit on-line I immediately remembered him and how gracious and considerate he was...I can still see Howard standing in front of me... rocking back and forth, slapping those soles on a rack full of shoes. I guess the lesson here is that you never know what kind of impression you make on young people... he was a super guy and I've remembered his kindness for 50 years. Ron Lehr/Independence MO
