So sad to hear of Jim's passing. I was blessed to care for him for a while. Loved him! So sorry to hear of Lorene's passing. My thoughts and prayers to the family.

“ My first memory of Jim was when him and Lorene came to our home place to get rocks to make flower beds at their home back in Kansas. I also worked with Jim for a short time at EFCO, and he also had me help him build his fence through the timber on his place at Pulaskifield many years back. A great man and will be missed!

Prayers and hugs for Ciocia Lorraine, Jim, Joe and spouses. Wuj Jim was a kind sweet uncle to all of us and am glad Lorraine chose him. Hugs across the miles especially for my Ciocia Lorraine. Peace and eternal rest be granted to Jim.

I do remember Lorene & Jim getn rocks in our timber. Jim & I got so many mosquito bites that we came back to house to treat all our many bites. George & Lorene never got a single bite.
