“ You were my neighbor and friend. You answered many questions for me as a young wife and cook. I still have the clipping you had saved about Jeff's grandmother and her apple butter. I watched you raise three beautiful daughters and still remember the day Jeri Lyn ran away from home to my house with her shoe, birthday card, and deflated balloon. I fed her jelly beans and talked her into going back home. You are the only person I know who ate cheese with your popcorn. I so enjoyed sitting around your table and visiting. You will be missed, friend.

“ Kathy, we've shared so many good times and laughs over the years. Like that time we were on the way home from Tahlequah with the girls in the van. It still cracks me up. We will miss you always, but we also take comfort in knowing you are at peace now and no longer in pain. Love you always.....

“ I was blessed to have you as my big sister. I remember all the times you kept me out of trouble (or tried). I'm thankful that you gave me three beautiful nieces to love. Until I see you again, another time, another place. I love you Kath.

“ I enjoyed the brief time I spent with Kathy. She was happy and at peace, glad to be in her little hillside home. She shared with me how much it meant to her to be spending time with her daughters. Rest in Peace dear lady💕
