“ I remember when I was in my younger a years at my grandparents farm enjoying the farm andy grandparents, I remember being happy watching my grandpa in his chair outside smiling and socializing with family. I remember when he had us clean out the truck from hauling cattle taught me a lot being there. And was one of the best times of my early childhood. I will always have these wonderful memories of my grandparents which I don't have many memories from my childhood so these are special.
