We are so sorry about the loss of your special Mom, Grandma, and GGrandma. You have lots of precious memories to remember. We are thinking about you all today and wish we could be there. Aunt Marie was one of my favorite Aunts and my Confirmation Sponser . I hold a special place for her in my heart. Due to my Multiple Sclerosis it is hard for me to travel right now. “ My condolences to the Heidlage family. Having married Shaun Delaney, I had the opportunity to meet Marie on several occasions. One was our family visit to the farm on our way home. My kids still talk about the visit. Ralph took them out in the field to count cattle. Also, that was some potluck dinner that was served. Daughter Mara remembers the visit because she had a problem with a contact lens and there were eighteen 'doctors' there to help her. Mara and I do not remember the name, but one gal chased everyone out of the room and took care of the floating lens. Never did get a bill. Interesting, we just visited Cheri and Steve Delaney and we talked about it. I also just read that their wedding day was August 20, the same date that Shaun and I got married on, not quite the same year.

With sympathy, Peter Kainass with Mara, Dace and Val. God bless.

“ As a young boy I had so many great memories of our visits to see Aunt Marie and Uncle Ralph and their kids, it is hard to pick just one - - - whether it was collecting eggs in the hen house, playing in the barn, or riding on a tractor. But if I had to choose just one, it would probably be the time that a neighbor of Aunt Marie and Uncle Ralph found a wild bee nest in a tree and gave Aunt Marie part of the honeycomb. Aunt Marie gave us part of the honeycomb to eat and not only did it taste great but was a really exciting experience for a city kid. A small thing perhaps but just one example of the many nice things that Aunt Marie would do for us during our family visits to Missouri from Oklahoma. I can truly say that Aunt Marie was one of the nicest persons that I have ever met. I will miss trading Christmas cards with her. John Delaney (nephew)
