“ Sorry I could not attend today. You have been in my thoughts and prayers all week. I have so many great memories with your mom-i really didn't know Murl. We all went to the same church and my folks and your folks were in the same sunday school class. Mom and Martha were best buds--and as an adult we played lots of bridge. She even gave me a one on one lesson for peanut butter fudge. When mom died, someone gave me this saying "Her presence influenced who I was, and her absence influences who I am." Just remember she is in your heart forever. My love..... Connie Castor Knight
