“ Mary Ann was a sweet lady who loved her Lord. She was my [ex] sister-in-law and also my friend. I never would have met my (late) 1st husband, Bruce, if she and her best friend, Lavina [my sister-in-law who met my 2nd brother, Ted, at Mary Ann's wedding] hadn't introduced us.

I know she really loved her son, Thom Wallace and moved to MO to be near him. She missed her grands alot too, and was so glad to reconnect with them.

We kept in touch throughout the years and laughed and talked about our dogs. She was heart broken about losing her last one.

But we will meet again my sister in Christ.

I'll be seeing ya.
