“ My Deepest Condolences to Louise's family of her loss.

I'm grateful I got to sit and visit with Louise the evening of Patty's Birthday Party. It was a pretty special time, as I had a picture of her, Teresa Heeter and my mom with their school class in elementary school. Louise was thrilled, and it made me happy to see her so happy to get that picture from long ago.

I am sure Louise is in Heaven celebrating with Jesus, family and friends. I can only imagine. 💜

My Deepest Sympathy To Louise's Family,

“ I just came across the obit of Louise and memories of the early 1950's came flooding to my mind. I was a young teenager when Buster and Louise moved into the little red brick house just to the east of us on Hwy 60, east of Granby. I think I must have been a daily visitor when baby Kathy came along as I loved to hold and cuddle her, and watch her momma give her daily baths. (This was where I learned how to bathe my own babies many years later, from watching Louise!) I was about 14 when I babysat with Kathy a few times. My mom was just next door if I needed any help. But I managed quite well. After we moved a few years later, we saw Louise and Kathy a couple times and then lost touch with them. I am saddened by you loss. Louise was a beautiful young woman. Wish I could have continued to know her. My condolences to all of the family. Betty (Givens) Nagel, Carthage, MO. (My mom was Josephine and stepfather was Floyd)

“ One of the greatest gifts The Spoonhour Family was given is the gift of love from Louise Bellm (thru marriage into the Lisa Gorman Family) - Louise would create time to make us feel special and her laughter will be heard for eternity with the stories we will continue to share. Louise quite possibly may hold the record for most people ever hugged and kissed - May the cardinals continue to sing her songs each time we see one and the entire family continue to share her joy and passion for life - Stephen & Lisa Spoonhour

“ Our dear sweet, tart, funny Aunt Louise. I loved you so, always will. You raised a family as dear as you are, I know how proud you are of each of them. Your love was as strong as you were. I know mom was in heaven to greet you and you will both be watching out for us until we meet again. I love you. ❤️
