“ I knew him as "Cletus" and all the memories of the fair that he enhanced with all his pranks. Later I met up with him while being employed at Bordertown and Indigo Sky, he was still "Cletus" to me. He was a good person and I am blessed by being able to have called him a friend. So this is so after the fact but I just found out, so so sorry for your loss. Sheri Farmer

“ Orvie came and put a railing up on our rental house because he was afraid that my mother might fall going down the 3 steps from the porch. When I asked him how much I owed him for doing it he said "I can't afford having your Mom not take care of my young um's ". Keeping all of the family in our thoughts and prayers..... “ Orvie, we will always love you and miss you! As I sit here thinking of you, I remember you trying to be big brother when I was in high school, bringing me gas when I ran my car dry in college, your pickleloaf and Manwich meals we shared at Granny and Grandpa's, the family poker games, Clifton, and how you were always in a hurry. To my family, we have you all in our prayers and are sending you strength!
Love to each of you
