“ One by one the Father is calling His children home. Only He knows who and when. I was very saddened to hear of Pam's passing. I'm sad for the loss of such a special wife, mother, grandmother, sister, cousin and friend. I love you all and I'm praying for our amazing Holy Spirit to comfort all of you as only He can. We'll join her and many others in our family someday. Heaven's gain sweet Pam for sure ❤️

“ Oh, Pam! My dear, sweet friend-sister. We have had so many years full of fun, laughs, tears and joy. I love you so much and miss you always. I will always remember Jungle Fever and "D Ward". We had such a great time in high school! You were always up for a great prank and a laugh. Heaven's choir has gained a beautiful voice. Rest in Jesus. I will see you again. Think heaven can handle us both?

“ My favorite memory is Pam singing Happy Birthday to all she knew on Facebook...she sang to me every time she knew I was feeling low...even if she was in a public setting...my song of choice was always "Beautiful Star of Bethlehem " pam sang this song at Bruce Bakers church none year with no music...with the acoustics in that building she sounded so beautiful...I can hear her today. Pam was beautiful inside and out and I will miss her until we meet again in heaven ❤️❤️❤️💔
