“ In my hand right now is a wooden carved Santa pen that Richard made for us when I worked at the bank. He also made wooden pins that I wear each year. I will always remember him when I see these things. He was very talented!

“ Much love and prayers for Judy and family. After struggling for so long, Richard is whole again! No doubt smiling down on his beautiful family. Richard was so generous in sharing his woodworking finished products with friends. What a wonderful keepsake for so many. Praying for God to give you comfort in the knowledge that Richard is finally home and healthy. God Bless You.

“ What a good picture of Richard! I shall long remember Richard's telling of one of his first conversations with Glen Garrett. Looks as if they saw eye to eye! May our Lord and memories comfort Richard's family during this time and in the days to follow.
