“ I remember Bob as the mechanic for the truck line in Mount Vernon. He worked with my Dad (Howard) for many years and was a great guy.

“ For some reason we were in the area and dropped in on Bob and Lenore. Even though they weren't expecting us, Bob hitched up his horse and buggy and took us for a ride. To spend the time and effort to do that was remarkably generous, especially given that we were in-laws. I never saw Bob when he wasn't pleasant and easy-going. I know he will be greatly missed.
