“ I was a bartender at the VFW in Carthage and the first time I met him he ordered a straight shot and drank it down after he got done he called me over and told me never to serve him hard liquor cause he didn't tolerate it well. He was an awesome man and he went through so much .Rest in peace Roger. I will never forget you.

I sure do miss my grandpa and I think about him everyday and now that I'm all growing up I wish I'd have been able to spend more time with him and would I wish even more is that I would have become more like him cuz he was a great man a strong man a good man a wise man and many other things of great value and I learned so much from him as a child for the very little time that I got with him although towards the end I did get to go see him a lot more I was going and seeing him every week for a couple of years oh hell I miss him dearly I think about him everyday I just wish I could get the opportunity to get to know to the rest of my family on his side like I did him I've searched I've made phone calls but I never get any responses but this I do know it is an honor to be the grandson of Mr Roger Pruitt
