“ *Allison and Cameron,
I have good memories of your father as a softball official. He was gentle in his approach with me when I had a question about the game. He could laugh and joke about incidences on the field. I will miss him.

“ Cameron and Allison,

Your father was the best Dad and a wonderful person. He was a gentle giant and everyone loved him.

Remember that he lives on in you both and in Darian. His legacy will not end just because you no longer see him. He will remain with you. You will see him in little gifts that he gave you in your daily life.

I knew Ron from the 6th grade and through high school and college. We were good friends then and maintained contact since then. We had a lot of good conversations and we both learned a lot from each other, especially about each other's religions. Please accept my condolences.
