“ I just learned of Sharon's death. I want all of her family to know that I thought that Sharon was one of the finest people I have ever known. I knew her mother and father and recognized from an early age that these were people of extraordinary faith, quality, and goodness. I never knew a sweeter, kinder person than Sharon's mother. Rudolph was always very kind to me too. I will never forget the time when Aunt Jo Etta babysat my brother Mark and me while Mama and Dad went to the hospital to bring John into the world. The phone in the hallway rang and Aunt Jo Etta answered. Soon she was smiling and telling us that we had a new baby brother. Ronald and Robert were wonderful brothers to Sharon and I know that they miss her terribly. Please accept my condolences and know that I treasured Sharon. Love, Becky Crutchfield Brown

“ Dear Sharon - my heart hurts from losing you. You were such an incredible lady and I am truly blessed that you were part of my life. You were one awesome friend - always there for any of us - and I miss you so. I know when I see any quilting material or a great pattern - I will think of you and smile. I will always love you and carry you and your wonderful smile in my heart.

Always and forever,

“ Sharon - you will so be missed! You were a friend to so many and had a wonderful knack of making everyone feel they mattered to you. Your presence on this earth will be sorely missed, but will see you in heaven - I know you will stay busy caring for others because that is who you are.
