“ I am sorry to hear about the passing of Mr Whitman. I remember riding the school bus with his children and like him they were kind and quiet. I remember him being so proud of his kids and always a kind hello when I would see him. His younger children Jim and Joan became great friends. The Whitman family is another great family that makes anyone from Pierce City proud to call that community home!

I also would mention that I still feel bad that the Whitman kids were always the last off the school bus!
