“ My best friend and "business partner." Pete was like a brother to me. We did so much together. Working with our cattle, hauling hay, moving our bull back and forth between his place and mine, hauling calves to the sale barn. We had lots of fun rabbit hunting with our beagles in the snow. So many great memories! I have no words for the pain I feel right now. I'll miss you my brother. See you on the other side.
