“ My memories of Wilbur go back 52 years. At 14 he was giving my family advice on our cats and helped keep the cost down. This was a lifelong goal (gift) for him. He advised me over the years and showed me how to be a father and a forgiving person. I will miss his humor and look forward to keeping in touch with the family. I'm too far away to come to his services but my thoughts are with you constantly. God blessed Wilbur and will have new duties for him in the next life. Phone calls to come after the activities have died down. Just a side note, Bill are you interested in going fishing with me sometime?
God bless you all, Wilbur is now at rest and no longer in pain.
Your family friend, Joe tubbs
