“ This loss is Heaven's gain. My prayers go up for you Sis Poage and the rest of your family. I too have many wonderful memories of Bro. Poage. My favorite would have to be how he brought Eric a pumpkin pie every year for his birthday and tell him it was because he was a Thanksgiving turkey. May you find peace in the many wonderful memories you have of Bro Poage. ~Stacie, Hannah, Eric, and Seth Martin

“ Tonight my heart is heavy, for we are saying farewell to our dear friend and awesome man of God, Bro. Bill Poage. Although we cannot attend his services due to distance, our heart is with him and his precious wife Ruth, and all of his family! I will truly miss the man who always greeted me with an enormous hug, a world class (ornery) smile, and referred to Amy and I as his grandkids! I will miss our Wednesday breakfast, comprising of the greatest biscuits and gravy ever, and their home made jams! God made people like Bill and Ruth Poage from special stock, and I am a better person having known such a great man! Amy and I will never forget you Bro. Poage and we will always love you, and cannot wait to meet up with you again someday! Congratulations... You have received the award that you have been striving for!

Our dearest love and condolences,

Michael and Amy Turner

“ I have so many fond memories of Bro. Poage, from Harvest Parties to his ornery smile, I considered him a friend and will miss him dearly. My condolences to Sis. Poage and family in your time of loss. He was truly a great man and though we will miss him here, I know his reward is great and that he is in a much better place.

Love and prayers,

Amy Kitch
